

Nikoletta Giantsi

Associate Professor, Medieval History

Address: Dpt of History, Faculty of History & Archaeology, School of Philosophy, University of Athens, University Campus, Athens 15784

Tel: +30 2107277685

e-mail: ngian@arch.uoa.gr

Fields of interest

Social and economic history of medieval Towns. The formation of the margin during the Middle Ages, cities and urban development, Heresies, Mendicant orders, poverty, charity, Women's contributions to the Economy of medieval Towns.

Main publications

Forms of marginal female activity status in Western Europe during the late Middle Ages: the movement of beguinae, Thessaloniki, 2001.

The poor between the Church and the City: Urban charity in Western Europe in the Middle Ages "Athens 2011.

The lepers of the late Middle Ages and their hospitals. Rules and regulations of everyday life in French leproseries (12th-14th centuries) (forthcoming)

« Vivat de labore manuum ejus. L'idéal de travail contre l'idée de mendicité : deux normes contradictoires », ("Vivat de labore manuum ejus." The ideal of working versus the idea of begging: two contradictory norms) in Normes et hagiographie dans l'Occident latin (VIe-XVIIe siècle): Actes du colloque international de Lyon, 4-6 octobre 2010, Brepols 2014, pp. 403-417.

“Les difformités corporelles des lépreux: Aspects de l’imaginaire social au Moyen-Age”, in Gabriela Antunes, Björn Reich (eds.), (De)formierte Körper – Die Wahrnehmung und das Andere im Mittelalter, Universitätsverlag Göttingen, 2012, pp. 121-135.

“Female Lives and Spirituality after the Cluniac and Gregorian Reform in Northern France: The Hidden Gender Agenda”, in Aureus, volume dedicated to professor Evangelos K. Chryssos, Athens 2014, pp.213-224.

« La Maladrerie de Meaux: un champ de conflits de juridiction entre l'évêque et le comte (XIIIe - XIVe siècles) ("La Maladrerie de Meaux: a field of conflicts of jurisdiction between the bishop and the count (13th - 14th centuries) », in La justice

dans les cités épiscopales du Moyen Age à la fin de l'Ancien Régime, Etudes d'Histoire du Droit et des Idées Politiques (EHDIP), Université Toulouse 1 Capitole, 2014, pp.

Ongoing Research

The development of charity and care in Europe during the medieval period. Special research activity in France and Belgium. (Centre Publique de l'Aide Sociale in Brussels, Département des Archives), Archives de la Ville de Bruxelles, Archives générales du Royaume et Archives de l'État de Provinces (Algemeen Rijksarchief en Rijksarchief in Provinciën) in Brussels.

History and economic activity of medieval women.